Installation for Macintosh® OS X

INTERNET ACCESS: The installation process requires internet access for registration and activation of your software. If you do not have access to the internet, you will be able to install your AcuGraph software, but will not be able to register and use the system until you have internet access.

1. Please DO NOT plug in your AcuGraph Probe Controller yet. You must install the software first. If you already have a previous version of AcuGraph installed, MAKE A BACKUP OF YOUR CURRENT DATA! Then insert the AcuGraph CD.
2. When the CD icon appears on the desktop, open it, and double click on the AcuGraph4.mpkg Icon.

3. You will see the welcome screen of the installer. Click "Continue" to go on.

4. Please read the Important Information, then click "Continue" to go on.

License Agreement
Please Read Carefully
Do not use the software accompanying this Agreement (the "Software") until you have carefully read the following Agreement. Installing and/or using the Software (or authorizing any other person to do so) indicates your acceptance of the terms and conditions contained in this Agreement. If you do not agree with the terms and conditions of this Agreement, promptly return the unopened Software and accompanying items to the place of purchase within 30 days of purchase and your money will be refunded. This Agreement sets forth the terms and conditions for licensing of the Software from Miridia Technology Inc., ("Licensor").
You are granted a non-exclusive license to install one copy of the Software only on a single computer and a single terminal. You may install one additional copy on a laptop or portable computer, provided that the laptop or portable computer is owned and possessed by you, for your use, and that the software is not simultaneously run on more than one computer. Although you are encouraged to make a backup copy of the Software for your own use, you are not allowed to make more than two copies for backup purposes. The Software (including any images, icons, graphics, animations, video, audio, music, and text incorporated into the Software) is protected by copyright laws. You may not make copies of the Software except for backups. You may not give copies to another person, or duplicate the Software by any other means, including electronic transmission.

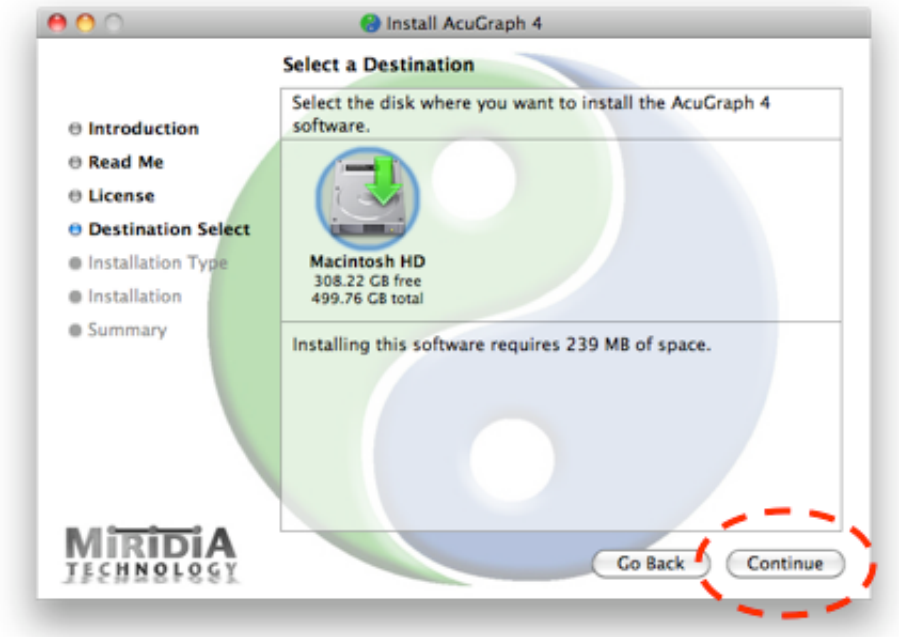
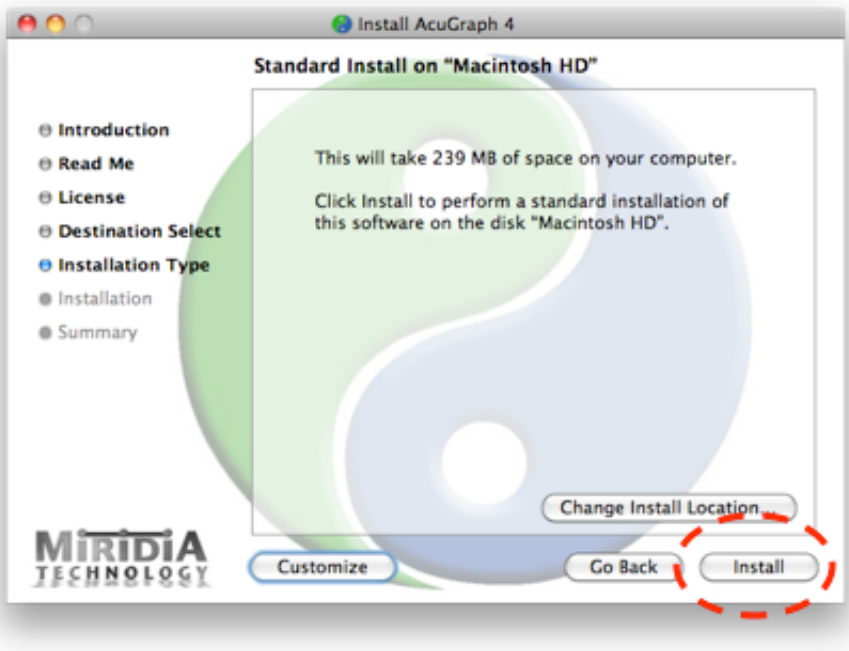
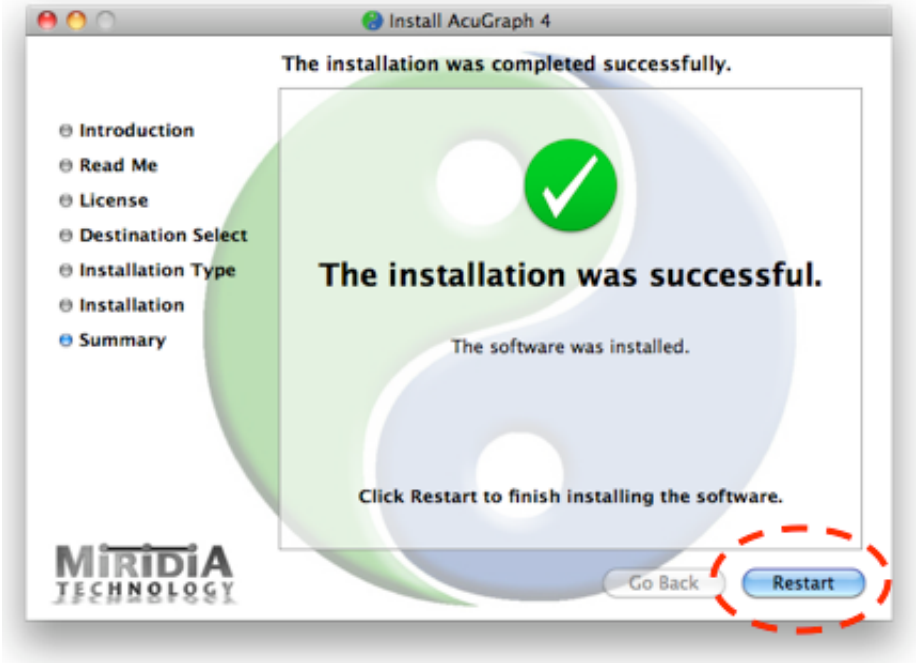
7. Select the drive on which to install AcuGraph by clicking on its icon in the window. Then click "Continue" to go on.



8. The window informs you that a basic installation will take place, click "Install" to continue.



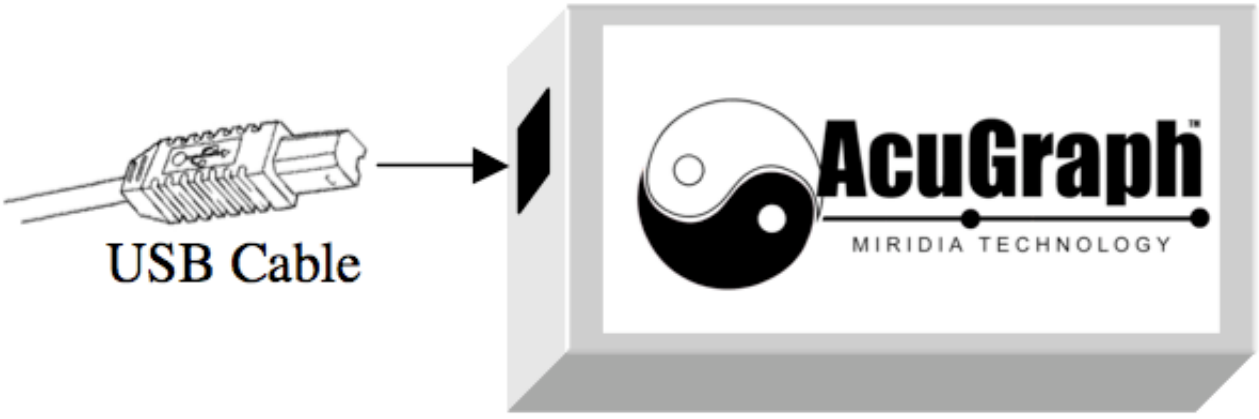
9. A drop-down window will inform you that a reboot will be required after installation. Click "Continue Installation." You will also be required to enter your system password. The installation will then proceed until you see the following screen indicating installation was successful:



10. When the installation has completed, click "Restart". After the computer has restarted, continue on for hardware installation instructions.

Install your AcuGraph USB Probe by doing the following:

1. Attach the black and gray probe leads to the RIGHT side of your AcuGraph Probe Controller case. Next, attach the black USB cable to the LEFT side of the case, as shown below:



2. The other end of the black USB cable plugs into the USB port on your computer:

Your USB port will be labeled with this symbol:

NOTE: The USB cable ends are indexed to only insert one way. Do not force the connection. If you are experiencing difficulty inserting the USB plug, please make sure it is in the proper orientation. Normally, the molded USB symbol is facing up.

CONGRATULATIONS!

You are now ready to set up your AcuGraph software. Please proceed to "Setting Up AcuGraph."
